

LAKE STORM.

Much Damage Wrought to Shipping and Fishing.

A Gill-Netting Sailboat, With Three Men on Board, Missing.

It is Believed That They are Lost—Half a Dozen Other Fishing Vessels Upset and Damaged—Four Lighters Have Gone to the Bottom.

SANDUSKY, O., Nov. 7.—A heavy storm is raging on Lake Erie and has done great damage to shipping and fishing. One of Zistel Bros' gill-netting sailboats, with three men aboard, Messrs. Meyer, Jeebs and George Voigt, is missing and believed to have been lost. The men have families and are well known here. Half a dozen other fish boats were upset and damaged. Capt. Moore, of the tug Monk, picked up the crew of a capsized fish boat just as the occupants were ready to drown. The tug was then ordered to tow the crew of several boats. Four lighters, owned by John Stang, of Lorain, and engaged at the government piers, have been blown to the bottom in the bay and two have gone down the lake. One of the latter capsized and rolled overboard, taking with it machinery. Damage to shipping and fishing interests will foot up many thousands of dollars. A steamer that arrived Thursday night reportedly had seen several capsized boats in the lake and on the off Cedar Point. She saw three men, but was unable to give assistance on account of the tremendous sea.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Nov. 7.—Great damage has been done to the shipping interests by the high wind of Thursday night. The wind still continues in gusts of high velocity Friday morning. The canal boat No. 10, which was being towed up the river from Tonawanda, broke her hawser and was blown on the rocks along the shore. The captain was rescued with his crew, but his mules were crushed to death. The boat became a total wreck. The steamer City of Buffalo made no trip Thursday night. The lower Niagara river has been storm-torn, as has rarely happened before. The water has risen two feet. Trolley and steam cars are run with difficulty and peril.

CAPT. HATFIELD.

The Notorious Outlaw Surprised in His Sleep and Made Prisoner.

HUNTSVILLE, W. Va., Nov. 7.—Capt. Hatfield, the most notorious outlaw in the West Virginia mountains, has been captured. J. H. Clark, the detective and deputy sheriff of the Norfolk & Western railway, with Dan Chirkin arrived here at dawn with Hatfield and his 14-year-old son. They were captured in the mountains of Hancock county at dusk Thursday night.

After two days and nights' tireless trailing and reconnoitering, Hatfield was located in a small rural fort in the mountains, which was used by their faction as a place of refuge during their troubles in the McCoy's of Kentucky, six years ago.

Hatfield and his son are charged with the murder of John Rutherford, Elliott Rutherford and John Rutherford in an election quarrel at Matewan, W. Va. Father and son were seen by a correspondent at the jail here Friday. They seemed not the least worried by the affair.

The 14-year-old lad smiled and said: "I killed Elliott Rutherford and John Chambers. Dad killed John Rutherford."

"Cap" Hatfield for years led the famous band of Hatfields against the McCoy's. The fame of that feud spread over the whole country. Hatfield was charged with killing 17 men in the past 10 years.

Hatfield and his son were, asleep in a crevice of a large rock cliff on Tug river when the officers discovered them. Hatfield had two Winchester and two revolvers, while the boy was sleeping with a Winchester lying on each side of him.

KENTUCKY ELECTION.

It Will Take the Official Count to Determine the Result.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 7.—It will take the official count the victory both sides as to the result in Kentucky. The last newspaper figures place McKinley's plurality in the state at 633. The official count by the state board of canvassers will not be made until the first of December, which will not be finished for four or five days, owing to the large vote, but the figures are not obtainable at this late hour. The state returning board will meet three weeks from Tuesday to pass on the count by counties.

Kash and Smith, the first electors on the republican and democratic tickets running against each other, and the other electors on the official count, and no matter which way the state goes the electoral vote is going to be divided, that is, if the republicans carry the state they will get 13 electors, the democrats one and vice versa. If the democrats carry the state they will get 13 electors, the republicans one and vice versa. If the democrats carry the state they will get 13 electors, the republicans one and vice versa. If the democrats carry the state they will get 13 electors, the republicans one and vice versa.

The republicans were very chipper Friday night. Mr. Roberts said at 9 o'clock: "We have received official returns from all except 27 counties. We have trustworthy returns from the 110 counties of the state show 433 plurality for McKinley. We are perfectly satisfied that we have carried the state. I am waiting on further official returns and expect to send Maj. McKinley a telegram before midnight. I concede the democrats one electoral vote, owing to the failure to vote to swing their ballots correctly."

As the official returns came in Friday night, the democrats were disappointed. I concede the democrats one electoral vote, owing to the failure to vote to swing their ballots correctly. As the official returns came in Friday night, the democrats were disappointed. I concede the democrats one electoral vote, owing to the failure to vote to swing their ballots correctly.

Maj. H. P. Johnston, chairman of the Democratic state central committee, said Friday night that he believed the state had gained Bryan 1,000 plurality.

FURNITURE TRADE.

Stimulated by the Result of the Late Presidential Election.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Nov. 7.—The result of the presidential election has had an effect to stimulate the furniture industry of this city in all of its departments. A STEAMER

Collides With a Schooner Near the St. Johns Harbor.

The Latter Was Sunk in Two Amidships and Cant Instantly.

Thirteen Lives, Nine Men and Four Women. Were Lost. The Crew of the Steamer Will Be Placed Under Arrest on Charge of Hauling.

ST. JOHNS, N. F., Nov. 7.—The steamer Florida, bound for Sydney, left here at seven o'clock Friday night. Ten minutes later when just beyond the entrance to the harbor, she collided with the schooner Margie, bound from Bueaevast bay for St. Johns with a cargo of fish and lumber. Thirteen lives were lost. The schooner carried a crew of 9 and 16 passengers, 8 of whom were women. The schooner had her lights displayed and there was no justification on the steamer's part for the collision, because the night was clear and the schooner quite near the shore in a part of the entrance where steamers rarely go. The shock of the collision was awful. The schooner was struck amidships, cut in two places and sank instantly. All aboard were on deck. They were thrown into the water and those saved were only rescued by the help of the floating deck load of lumber. Several were caught under the sails and dragged down with the sinking vessel. Others were unable to keep afloat until the rescue boats arrived and dropped off the planks. Two men climbed up the steamer's side and seven were saved by her boats. One woman was also saved, making ten souls rescued. The other 13, nine men and four women, drowned. Capt. Blundin's wife, who was bringing her consanguine 15-year-old boy to the hospital at St. Johns, was drowned, although her husband had her on a plank. The boy and nephew were also lost.

Two passengers named Illovay, brother and sister, were drowned, as was a woman named Power and her seven widows and 33 orphan as the result of this catastrophe.

The pecuniary losses of the survivors are heavy. Capt. Blundin owned 20 quintals of fish aboard valued at $2,000. Several other men had their summer's wages, $400 a piece, with them, and two men had $1,000 each, and were coming to St. Johns to make purchases. All were more or less closely related.

The police are arranging to cause the arrest of the Florida's crew at Sidney, on a charge of manslaughter. The government is caring for the survivors.

ILLEGAL VOTING.

One Hundred Men Arrested in South Dakota—Several Counties Were Colonized.

PIERRE, S. D., Nov. 7.—Returns came in during Friday afternoon and evening showing that a number of counties were colonized by tramps, threatening crews, etc., from the Minnesota, Wyoming and Idaho. The Latest News From All Parts of the Commonwealth.

BOB FARRELL.

The Noted Convict in the Frankfort Penitentiary, Dead.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Nov. 7.—Bob Farrell, the most noted convict in the Frankfort penitentiary, died at noon Friday. He was sent up from Mason county for life for killing Thomas Calvert. It was charged on trial that Farrell had betrayed Calvert's daughter, and when Calvert sought to bring him to account for it, Farrell killed him. Farrell denied this assertion, and the brothers and sisters of the young lady bore out his claim by sworn affidavits, but for some reason he could not secure a pardon. He was a union soldier, but opened a hotel in Washington just at the close of the war, and was said to have been victorious in a fight to assassinate Lincoln. He then went to Florida and secured large mail carrying contracts and then drifted into the trotting horse business, which brought him to Mayville, where he killed Calvert. G. Bradley was on the eve of pardoning him, and the pardon was actually written out and signed, but the famous Norman-Brown political fight interfered with it.
